A REGENCY LANTERN CLOCK ON MAHOGANY AND EBONIZED BASE

A REGENCY LANTERN CLOCK ON MAHOGANY AND EBONIZED BASE.

The brass case clock engraved with masonic decoration; the case signed 'Piolaine fecit London'. Ex Collection of Mica and Ahmet Ertegun. Purchased Mount Street Galleries London 1981.

7" square x 35.5"h

This ornate brass timepiece by Piolaine of London, mounted on a wooden column with a spiraling serpent, features Masonic symbols including a compass, square, and celestial sphere, indicating it was a ceremonial clock created specifically for Masonic lodge rituals in the late 18th or early 19th century.
