PAIR OF SASCHA BRASTOFF CERAMIC HORSE PLAQUE LAMPS, C. 1960

Pair of Sascha Brastoff Ceramic Horse Plaque Lamps, c. 1960

A striking pair of mid-century lamps fashioned from signed ceramic relief plaques by Sascha Brastoff. Each rectangular panel depicts a stylized horse rendered in Brastoff's distinctive flowing linework and finished in a softly crackled blush glaze. Mounted on ebonized wood plinths and fitted with polished brass hardware, the lamps retain a sculptural presence even when unlit. An elegant marriage of California studio ceramics and modern design.

7" d x 13.5" long base

12.5" high to top of ceramic

24.5" top of shade rest / overall height.
